

Christmas 2006

Just a short letter to let you know that we are well. Our year was a year like most years. It included a trip to Utah to visit Sally's daughter, a trip to PA to visit Mark's parents (his mom is 94 and his dad is almost 90). Sally's two other kids live here in San Diego so we see them pretty often. Her mom, Bette, is still doing well in independent living at a senior residence. During the summer, Sally spent two weeks in a Spanish immersion program in Mexico. She is going to continue her language use by volunteer-teaching English as a Second Language to parents of school children. In September, we attended a reunion of the ghost town of Dawson, New Mexico where some of Mark's Italian ancestors lived.

You can read a whole lot more about these trips at our web site <http://www.silogic.com> .

We wish you a very Merry Christmas!
