

Patsy DiVecchio, 91, of Aliquippa passed away peacefully on Thursday, April 9, 2009 in his home.

He was born Pasquale diVecchia on September 6, 1917 in Sant'Eufemia a Maiella, Italy, the son of the late Camillo DiVecchio and Lucia DiGiovine.

Patsy immigrated to the US in 1930, moving to West Aliquippa where he worked as a pipefitter for Jones and Laughlin Steel until his retirement in 1989. His work at J&L was interrupted by duty during the Second World War where he served in Europe with the 10th Armored Division.

He was a devoted parishioner of St. Titus Roman Catholic Church and a member of the Holy Name Society and the Sons of Columbus. He was an avid bowler and gardener and for a short time was a student at the Pittsburgh Art Institute. He continued to work after his retirement at the Howard Johnson Motor Lodge.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife of 59 years, Betty Frazzini, by two brothers, Michelangelo diVecchia and Anthony DiVecchio, two sisters, Eufemia Pantalone and Annina Politano and brother-in-law Paul Frazzini.

Surviving Patsy are son and daughter-in-law: Mark and Sally DiVecchio of San Diego, CA, two daughters: Patricia DiVecchio of Arlington, VA, and Diane DiVecchio of Aliquippa, and many loving nieces and nephews.

For photos and more, visit his web page at:

http://www.silogic.com/genealogy/Patsy_DiVecchio.html

Visitation will be Monday from 2-4pm and from 6-8pm in the ANTHONY MASTROFRANCESCO FUNERAL HOME, Inc, 2026 McMinn St, Aliquippa. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 9:30am Tuesday at St. Titus Catholic Church.

Entombment will follow in Mt. Olivet Catholic Cemetery, Hopewell Township.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Mother Teresa Hospice, 3950 Brodhead Road, Monaca, PA 15061.